Scramble Rules & Regulations

1. The Logan County Fair Association, U of I Extension/Logan County, nor the sponsors will be responsible for any accidents connected with this contest.
2. Applications are due at the close of office hours on Wednesday night of the fair at 4:30 p.m. Each participant must have their application signed by a parent or guardian or the application is void.
  - a) PREVIOUS PARTICIPANTS ARE NOT ELIGIBLE TO PARTICPATE.
  - b) Any 6 or 7 year old boy or girl are eligible to participate. The chicken scramble will be limited to the first 16 applicants.
3. Youth participants and/or family members must CHECK IN by 6:45 pm on Wednesday night of the fair at the small office just outside of the Livestock Show Pavilion (on North end of Logan County Fairgrounds) to receive the youth participant number. If not checked in by 6:45 pm your place in the scramble will be forfeited. Participants on a wait list will then be eligible to participate.
4. Chicken scramble participants must attend instruction meeting on Wednesday night at 7:00 p.m. in the Livestock Show Pavilion (North end of Logan County Fairgrounds) before the Scramble in order to be eligible to enter the arena for the chicken scramble.
5. While one contestant has a hold of a chicken, no other contestant will be allowed to touch it. If two contestants catch a chicken at the same time, the chicken will be turned loose.
6. The Chicken Scramble Committee will act as referees and judges in all cases under protest and their decisions will be final.
7. Each participant that catches a chicken is considered a winner and will not be allowed to participate in the chicken scramble the following year.
8. Each participant that catches a chicken will NOT be allowed to take the chicken home. Instead, they will be receiving a prize.
9. No one is allowed to leave the arena until all the chickens have been turned in.

2. Applications are due at the close of office hours on Wednesday night of the fair at 4:30 p.m. Each participant must have their application signed by a parent or guardian or the application is void.
  - a) PREVIOUS WINNERS ARE NOT ELIGIBLE TO PARTICPATE.
  - b) Any 4-H boy or girl who is exhibiting in the 4-H Show this year is eligible to enter the contest. All other applicants will be screened by the committee.
  - c) Any 8 year old and not yet 10 year old as of September 1 of the current year may apply to participate in the goat scramble. The scramble will be limited to the first 12 applicants.
3. Youth participants and/or family members must CHECK IN by 6:45 pm on Wednesday night of the fair at the small office just outside of the Livestock Show Pavilion to receive the youth participant number. If not checked in by 6:45 pm your place in the scramble will be forfeited. Participants on a wait list will then be eligible to participate.
4. Goat scramble participants must attend instruction meeting on Wednesday night at 7:00 pm in the Livestock Show Pavilion before the Scramble in order to be eligible to enter the arena for goat scramble.
5. While one contestant has a hold of a goat, no other contestant will be allowed to touch it. If two contestants catch a goat at the same time, the goat will be turned loose.
6. Each contestant will be provided with a halter. This halter is not at any time to be used as a lariat to "rope" a goat. The halter must be properly placed on the goat and led to the holding pen. Each halter is the property of the participant in the goat scramble.
7. The Goat Scramble Committee will act as referees and judges in all cases under protest and their decisions will be final.
8. Each participant that catches a goat is required to show the goat the following year in the Logan County 4-H goat show (and be a member of Logan County 4-H).

9. Each participant that catches a goat is required to maintain the health of the goat and report any unusual incidents affecting the continuation of the project to the Extension Office (217-732-8389). Any expenses after the goat scramble are the responsibility of the participant and the parents/guardians.
10. Each participant that catches a goat will be required to provide the extension office with a record of their project every other month (forms will be mailed to each recipient after the fair). We believe that learning to keep track of your project at this age is an important life skill. You will mail each report to the Extension Office on/or before the deadline. During the fair next year, we will judge all of the reports that have been submitted and the winner will be receiving a plaque for their accomplishments!
11. The scramble committee will be making farm tours throughout the year to check on your progress with your project. You will be notified before each visit.
12. The goat is the property of the scramble contestant who catches it. He/she must remove their goat from the fairgrounds no later than 10 p.m. the night of the scrambles; otherwise he/she will forfeit the goat.
  - a) In order to comply with Illinois State goat health requirements, once goat have been picked up at the Show Pavilion, they MAY NOT AT ANY TIME be allowed to touch the ground. Any persons found to neglect this rule will be asked to forfeit their goat.

YOUTH LIVESTOCK AUCTION
Sunday, August 7 – 12:00 p.m.(NOON)

Rules, Regulations & Information

1. The sale will be conducted on Sunday, August 7, under the auspices of the Logan County Fair Association.
2. The sale is open to Steers, Barrows, Sheep Wethers, Champion and Reserve Champion Rabbit Meat Pen, Meat Goat Wethers, Champion and Reserve Champion Poultry Market Pens, State Fair Visual Arts Delegates, and Cakes from Cake Classic. Only one animal or item per 4-H member may be sold unless the member has more than one Grand Champion. If a member has a scramble steer, that animal must sell as the member's animal. In order to sell 2 animals using the scramble animal, the member must have a Grand Champion of a show. In order to have multiple entries in the sale, an exhibitor would have to have multiple Grand Champions and/or a scramble steer. Goat, Rabbits, Visual Arts, and Poultry are not considered Grand Champions.
3. Sale animals and articles must be CONSIGNED by 9:00 am on Friday, August 5. – Contracts to be submitted to the Logan County FAIR Office (South end of Fairgrounds/near Grandstand) – NO sale contracts will be accepted after 9 am Friday Decisions concerning show rights must be made then for Visual Arts, Rabbits, and Poultry.
4. Only Logan County 4-H members who exhibit in the 4-H show are eligible to consign to the sale. 4-H members must be present at time of Auction to present their consigned item.
5. Animals will be sold by the pound at their show weights except for Champion and Reserve Champion Rabbit Meat Pens, Champion and Reserve Champion Poultry Market Pens and Goat Wethers. For steers to qualify for sale, they will have to weigh 900 pounds and those over 1400 pounds will sell at 1400 pounds. Scramble, Grand Champion & Reserve Grand Champions are excluded from weight limits.
6. The sale will start at 12:00 pm with buyer instructions.
7. Five percent will be taken off the top of each sale (gross amount) for advertising to promote buyers and sale; and to help offset 4-H programming costs.
8. Buyers will pay the amount of the bid less market price stated sale day. Buyer will have first claim on animal if desired, and needs to pay the 4-H'er market price upon delivery of animal or at the Logan County Fair Office on August 7th. The buyer must state their intention to want the animal immediately upon winning the bid.
9. Buyers must pay within 48 hours of the sale into the fund. ONE check for the total of the sale amount expected. Sellers will be paid (minus the percent) when the buyer's check clears. This can be done at the Fairgrounds until 2:00 pm on August 7 or at the Logan County FAIR OFFICE (South end of Fairgrounds) on August 7th.
10. Sale order for 2021 is Visual Arts, Rabbit Meat Pens, Poultry Market Pens, Barrows, Sheep Wethers, Meat Goat Wethers, Steers, and Cake Classic Cakes.
11. All animals consigned to the Youth Livestock Auction must remain on the fairgrounds until the sale is completed - any animal leaving grounds FORFEIT the consignment and will NOT be allowed to participate in auction.
12. There will NOT be arrangements for ANY animals to be shipped after the show. Hauling and sale arrangements may be provided by a livestock dealer.

Master Showmanship Contest – Thursday, August 4 – 2 pm

1. The exhibitor must be between the ages of 14-18 as of September 1, 2021.
2. The exhibitor must be enrolled in a 4-H Livestock event in 2022.
3. The exhibitor must fill out the intent to participate by June 24, 2022. All livestock members will receive the link before the June 24 registration deadline.
4. The county winner must be able to attend and participate in the state contest Friday, August 12 at 7:00 p.m. OR 30 minutes following the conclusion of the Supreme Heifer Show at the Illinois State Fair in the Junior Livestock Barn & Open Swine Barn. If the county winner cannot participate in the state contest, then the Reserve Master Showman may participate at the state level.
5. Participants in the 2022 Master Showmanship Contest at Logan County and the Illinois State Fair must supply their own livestock for the competition. Each exhibitor must own or borrow each: a steer or heifer, a market or breeding lamb, and a market hog or breeding gilt.

The Master Showmanship Contest will not supply animals for the competition!

6. Contest organizers withhold the right to expel any individual who has violated any rules or regulations or exhibits improper conduct that is unbecoming of a 4-H member.
7. In the event of a state contest cancellation, contest organizers are not liable for any lost revenues; expenses incurred, or schedule inconvenience, and are not bound to issue any awards or prizes.
8. The state contest will adhere to any and all guidelines in relation to the Illinois State Fair issued by the Illinois Department of Agriculture.
9. This is not a premium eligible contest!
